ALAN KUMAMOTO
Partner, Kumamoto Associates

Alan Kumamoto is a Founding Partner of Kumamoto Associates, an international marketing, management and communications firm, that brings clients and resources together to achieve optimum results.

Kumamoto Associates provided outreach services for the MTA Linguistically Isolated Populations Study and the Pacific Pipeline along the Alameda corridor.

Alan was born in the Arts District of Los Angeles when it was still an extension of Little Tokyo and is a 3rd generation Japanese American who has lived, worked and volunteered in the area.

His career spans leadership positions with private businesses, government agencies, nonprofit corporations, and private enterprises

Alan is the current President of the Board of the City of Los Angeles Historic Cultural Neighborhood Council (that includes Little Tokyo, Arts District, El Pueblo, Chinatown, Solano Canyon and Victor Heights), a founding and current Board member of the Little Tokyo Community Council and President of the Rotary Club of Little Tokyo.

He is a member of St Francis Xavier Chapel Japanese Catholic Center (Maryknoll), which one of his grandfathers helped establish while his other grandfather fundraised to build the local Nishi Buddhist Temple.

For the Eco Rapid Board, Alan has facilitated discussions on its mission, vision and guiding principles.
