

Lillian Burkenheim. Community Planning and Development Director, Eco-Rapid Transit

Ms. Burkenheim is the Planning and Development Director for Eco-Rapid Transit. In this capacity, she manages the development and implementation TOD efforts; land-use planning; economic development; and environmental review. Prior to joining Eco-Rapid, Ms. Burkenheim was a Project Manager with the Community Redevelopment Agency for downtown Los Angeles where she worked directly on the financing and implementation of Staples Center, LA Live, YWCA Jobs Corps, Ralphs Supermarket and Lofts, and the Downtown Women's Center. Throughout her career she has been interested in working with communities to help expand their economic viability and equity, utilizing transit and active transportation to generate new opportunities.
